SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of 36 months.

Other than exceptions noted on the record at sentencing, the Court adopts the proposed terms and conditions of supervision recommended by the U.S. Probation Office in its current form, including the explanations and justifications therefor.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

The following conditions are authorized pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3583(d):

The defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime.

The defendant shall not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.

The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the Court, not to exceed 52 tests in one year.

ADMINISTRATIVE CONDITIONS

The following conditions of supervised release are administrative and applicable whenever supervised release is imposed, regardless of the substantive conditions that may also be imposed. These conditions are basic requirements essential to supervised release.

The defendant must report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within seventy-two hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

The defendant shall not knowingly possess a firearm, ammunition, or destructive device. The defendant shall not knowingly possess a dangerous weapon unless approved by the Court.

The defendant shall not knowingly leave the federal judicial district without the permission of the Court or the probation officer.

The defendant shall report to the probation officer in a reasonable manner and frequency directed by the Court or probation officer.

The defendant shall respond to all inquiries of the probation officer and follow all reasonable instructions of the probation officer.

The defendant shall notify the probation officer prior to an expected change, or within seventy-two hours after an unexpected change, in residence or employment.

The defendant shall not knowingly meet, communicate, or otherwise interact with a person whom the defendant knows to be engaged, or planning to be engaged, in criminal activity.

DEFENDANT: Michael W. Atchison

CASE NUMBER: 4:06-cr-40019-JPG-17

The defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit the defendant at a reasonable time at home or at any other reasonable location and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer.

The defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS

Pursuant to the factors in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a) and 18 U.S.C. § 3583(d), the following special conditions are ordered. While the Court imposes special conditions, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3603(10), the probation officer shall perform any other duty that the Court may designate. The Court directs the probation officer to administer, monitor, and use all suitable methods consistent with the conditions specified by the Court and 18 U.S.C. § 3603 to aid persons on probation/supervised release. Although the probation officer administers the special conditions, final authority over all conditions rests with the Court.

The defendant shall participate in treatment for narcotic addiction, drug dependence, or alcohol dependence, which includes urinalysis and/or other drug detection measures and which may require residence and/or participation in a residential treatment facility, or residential reentry center (halfway house). The number of drug tests shall not exceed 52 tests in a one-year period. Any participation will require complete abstinence from all alcoholic beverages and any other substances for the purpose of intoxication. The defendant shall pay for the costs associated with services rendered, based on a Court approved sliding fee scale and the defendant's ability to pay. The defendant's financial obligation shall never exceed the total cost of services rendered. The Court directs the probation officer to approve the treatment provider and, in consultation with a licensed practitioner, the frequency and duration of counseling sessions, and the duration of treatment, as well as monitor the defendant's participation, and assist in the collection of the defendant's copayment.

The defendant shall not knowingly visit or remain at places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered.

The defendant's person, residence, real property, place of business, vehicle, and any other property under the defendant's control is subject to a search, conducted by any United States Probation Officer and other such law enforcement personnel as the probation officer may deem advisable and at the direction of the United States Probation Officer, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release, without a warrant. Failure to submit to such a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises and other property under the defendant's control may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. Probation Officer has read and explained the conditions ordered by the Court and has provided me with a complete copy of this Judgment. Further information regarding the conditions imposed by the Court can be obtained from the probation officer upon request.

Upon a finding of a violation of a condition(s) of probation or supervised release, I understand that the court may (1) revoke supervision, (2) extend the term of supervision, and/or (3) modify the conditions of supervision.
